

K-love has been a great alternative in our community for many years. It provides family friendly programming that I can listen to with confidence that no one will be offended by. If K-love were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster, it would be a detriment to our community. K-Love offers our community a great alternative to the "R" rated content of other stations in our community. It is very important that K-love continue to serve my community.